Herman Miller

Storing: Foris

FasTrak™

Designed by Herman Miller, Foris is a new, unique and exciting wooden storage programme.

Combining the desirable aesthetics of wood with the strength of steel, Foris delivers maximum performance to the user.

Foris is an integrated family of storage suitable for any office. Equally, it can be used in meeting rooms or the home; offering consistency of design and finishes that match or complement the surfaces of our furniture ranges.

As a complete storage solution, Foris offers the choice of Tambour and Hinged door units as well as a wide range of mobile and freestanding pedestals.

Storage units are available in multiple heights and have a steel plinth and internal sidewalls, guaranteeing stability. Features include metal-to-metal fixing for internal components and height adjustable feet for positive levelling, as well as a wide range of internal fittings to suit the needs of the user.

Pedestals are available in two widths and constructed with a full five-sided carcass, steel drawers and fully extendable runners for filing drawers.

The entire Foris range is backed-up with an industry leading 5-year warranty.
